

Mrs. Sidney Sider Heads Civic League

Mrs. Sidney Sider assumes the role of the new President of the Greater Bustleton Civic League at their June 7 meeting held at the Municipal Building, Bowler and Bustleton avenue. Looking on are her newly installed Board of Officers consisting of (left to right): Mrs. Margaret Valerio, Recording Secretary; Paul Grundke, former 1st Vice President (Mr. Grundke acted for Mr. Henry Fineman, former President who is ill in the hospital); Police Inspector Fox, guest speaker of the evening; Norman Walker, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Sider; and Raymond Kohl, 2nd Vice President. Not pictured are Miss Adele Polin, Corresponding Secretary, and Otto Knopf, Treasurer. Mrs. Sider used her own gavel which was presented in 1937 to her father, Jacob H. Gomborow, former Lt. of Detectives, when he was installed as the first president of the Philadelphia Shomri (Jewish Police and Firemen's Association). Inspector Fox was a most informative and interesting speaker. His topic concerned itself with the crime situation in Philadelphia. Everyone who attended agreed it was a most enjoyable evening.
